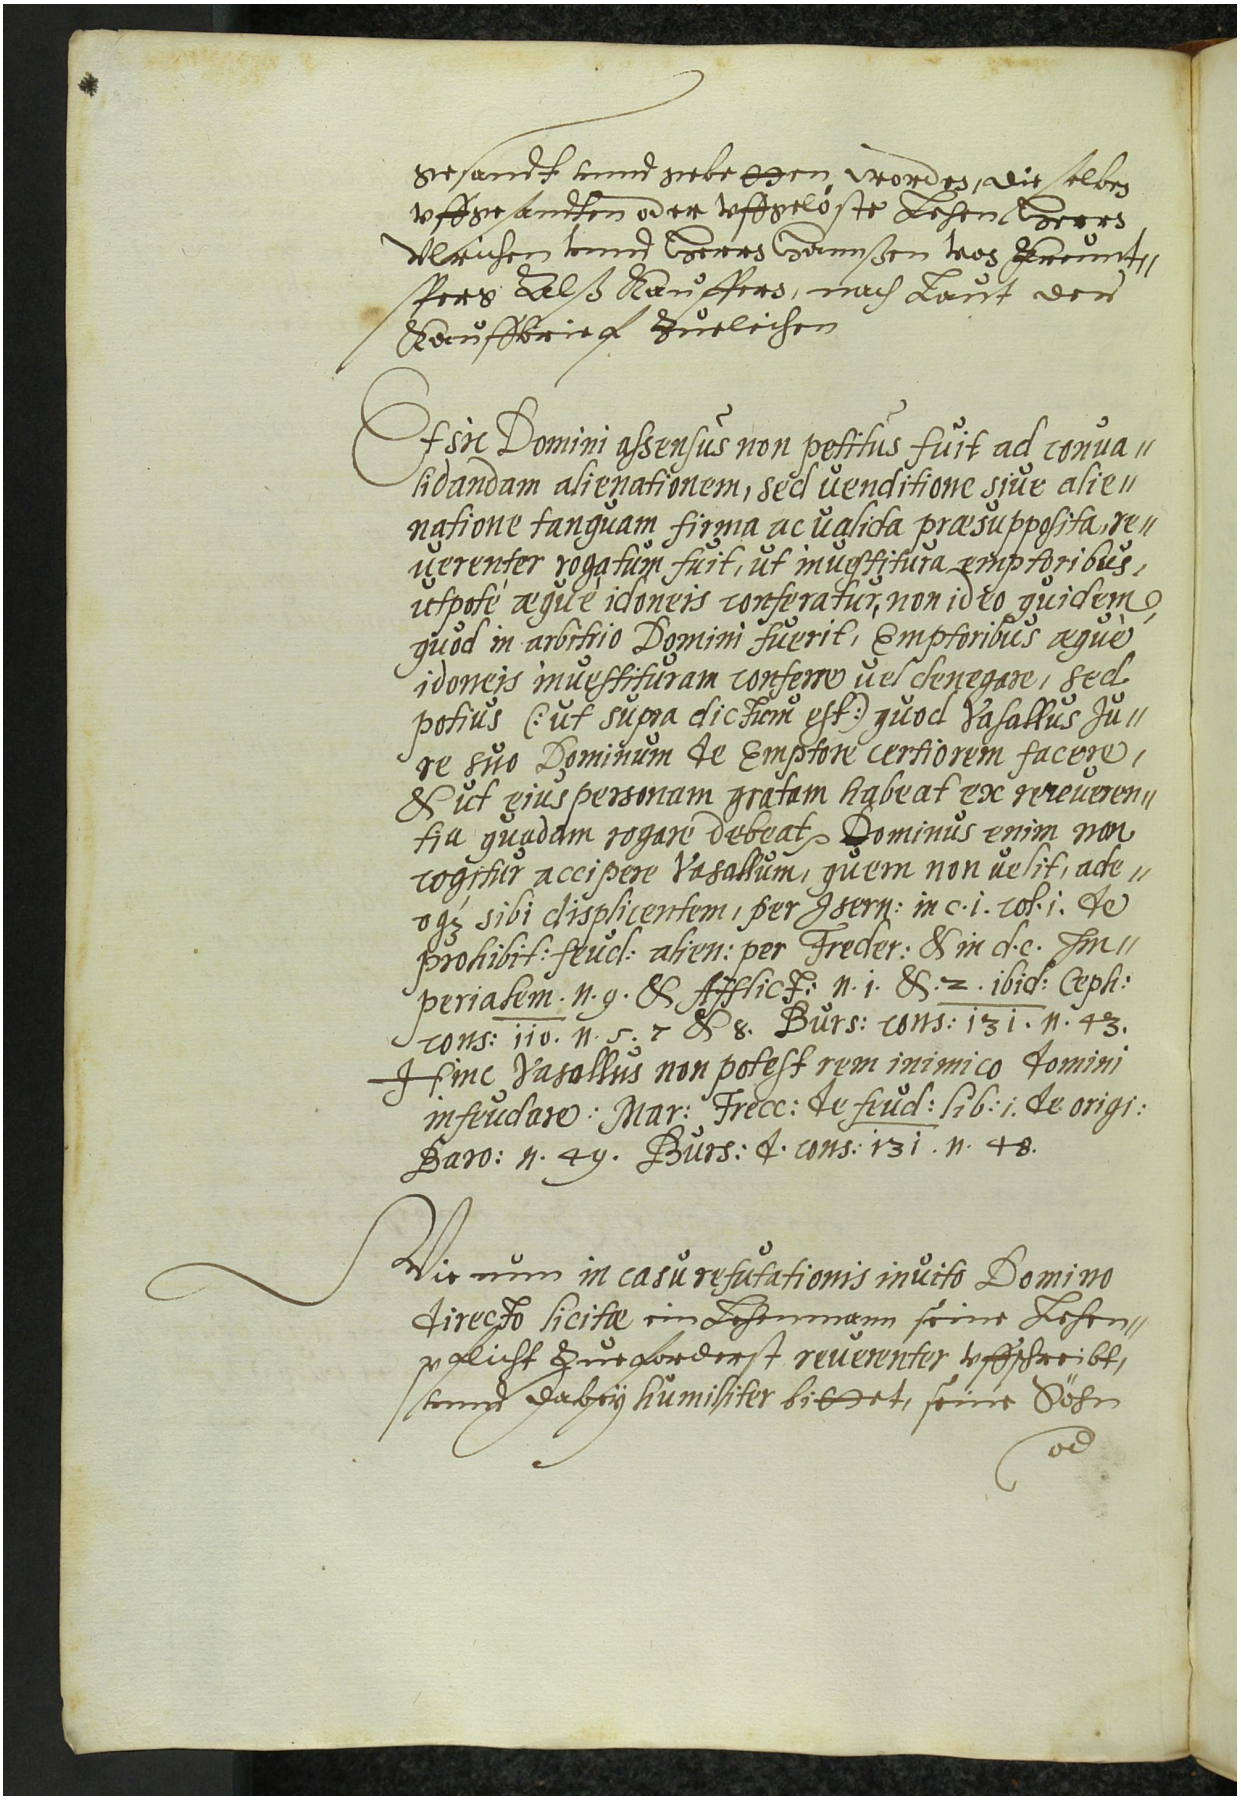
Quelle: https://manuscripta.at/?ID=8269
Copyright: Salzburg, Universitätsbibliothek



Et sic Domini assensus non potius fuit ad consu-lendam alienationem, sed uenditione siue alienationi tanquam firmae ac ualidae praesuppositae, reuerenter rogatum fuit, ut inuestitura emptoribus, utpote aeque idoneis conferatur, non ideo quidem quod in arbitrio Domini fuerit, emptoribus aeque idoneis inuestituram conferre uel denegare, sed potius (ut supra dictum est) quod Vasallus Jure suo Dominum de emptore certiorem facere, & ut eius pernam gratam habeat ex reueren-tia quadam rogare debeat. Dominus enim non rogatus accipere Vasallum, quem non uelit, ade-o sibi displicentem, per Ioseph: in c.i. tit.i. de prohibit: feud: alien: per Freder. & in d.c. Imperialem. n.g. & Affict: n.i. & 2. ibid: Ceph: cons: iiv. n. 5. 7 & 8. Burs: cons: 131. n. 43.
Hinc Vasallus non potest rem inimico Domini in feudare: Mar: Frecc: de feud: lib.i. de origi: Baro: n. 49. Burs: d. cons. 131. n. 48.

Vt autem in casu refutationis inuito Domino directo sicuti [illegible] reuerenter [illegible], [illegible] humiliter [illegible]

od